CONSIDERING THAT:

1. The Secretariat of the Court received an unprecedented number of briefs with relevant observations on the request for an advisory opinion, within the established time frame, all duly signed and accompanied by the required documentation (supra having seen paragraphs 4 to 13).
2. The importance and breadth of the questions submitted to the Court's consideration suggest the need for diverse and participative opportunities for direct dialogue that will contribute to informing the Court.
3. In view of the advisory nature of this matter, those OAS Member States that have not presented written observations on this matter may present their arguments during the oral phase of the procedure if they consider this pertinent.
4. It is appropriate to conduct the oral procedure established in Article 73(4) of the Rules of Procedure, and that the Inter-American Commission, the Member States, and all those who presented their written observations in due form may present their oral arguments.

THEREFORE:

THE PRESIDENT,

pursuant to the provisions of Articles 24(1) of the Court's Statute and 73(4) of its Rules of Procedure, and in exercise of the authority conferred by Article 31(2) of the latter,

DECIDES:

1. To hold two in-person public hearings during the 166th and 167th regular sessions of the Court. The first of these hearing will be held in Bridgetown, Barbados, on April 23, 24 and 25, 2024. The second will be held in Brasilia, Brazil, on May 24, 2024, and in Manaus, Brazil, on May 27, 28, and 29, 2024.

2. To invite the States, OAS organs, international organs and organizations, non-governmental organizations, academic institutions, and individuals indicated in Annex 1 to this order to the public hearing to be held in Bridgetown, Barbados, on April 23, 24 and 25, 2024, during the 166th regular session, to receive oral arguments on the request for advisory opinion OC-32 presented by the Republic of Chile and the Republic of Colombia.

3. To request all those indicated in Annex 1 of this order to inform the Secretariat of the Court (tramite@corteidh.or.cr) by March 8, 2024, at the latest, if they wish to take part in the hearing to which they have been invited by the President and that, in the same communication, they include the names of those who will take part in the said hearing, their respective email addresses and contact phone numbers, as well as the language in which the interventions will be conducted.

4. To invite the States, OAS organs, international organs and organizations, non-governmental organizations, academic institutions, and individuals indicated in Annex 2 to this order to the public hearing to be held in Brasilia, Brazil, on May 24, 2024, and in Manaus, Brazil, on May 27, 28, and 29, 2024, during the 167th regular session, to receive oral arguments on the request for advisory opinion OC-32 presented by the Republic of Chile and the Republic of Colombia.

5. To request all those indicated in Annex 2 of this order to inform the Secretariat of the Court (tramite@corteidh.or.cr) between March 18 and 22, 2024, if they wish to take part in the hearing to which they have been invited by the President and that, in the same communication, they include the names of those who will take part in the said hearing, their respective email addresses and contact phone numbers, as well as the language in which the interventions will be conducted.

6. To advise that the date, time and order of the interventions in each hearing will be indicated opportunely, prior to the hearings.

7. To indicated that, for logistical reasons and in order to fully ensure immediacy during the hearings, the Court will not consider requests to modify the annexes to this order or the in-person format of these hearings.

8. To direct the Secretariat of the Inter-American Court to serve notice of this order to the requesting States, the other Member States of the Organization of American States, all the bodies referred to in Article 73(1) of the Court's Rules of Procedure, and all those who, in due and appropriate form, presented their written observations in relation to the request for advisory opinion OC-33.
