The selected individuals are:

- State agents or individuals who work in the legal representation of the states in Contentious Cases and/or Monitoring Compliance with Judgment before the Inter-American Court of Human Rights
- public officials in charge of implementing or executing the reparation measures ordered by the I/A Court HR
- public officials responsible for the design, direction, execution and evaluation of the reparations ordered by the I/A Court HR that may entail public policies
- public officials from national human rights institutions of the States Parties who have an impact, at the domestic level, on compliance with the reparations ordered by the I/A Court HR
- representatives of victims who are part of proceedings before the inter-American system for the protection of human rights
- inter-American defense counsel
- individuals from civil society and academics.

Schedule:

- Online course lessons: March 12 to April 23, 2025.
- In-person week: May 5 to 9, 2025 (Asunción, Paraguay)

The international course aims to train and update key actors in the Americas on the various forms of reparation ordered by the Inter-American Court in its judgments and on compliance by the State through the design and implementation of public policies with a human rights perspective.
