INTER-AMERICAN COURT OF HUMAN RIGHTS LAUNCHES VIRTUAL ENGLISH CLASSROOM AT ITS TRAINING CENTER

San José, Costa Rica, september 6 de 2024. – On the occasion of the 45th anniversary of its installation, the Inter-American Court of Human Rights is pleased to announce the launching of programs in English at its Training Center's Virtual Classroom. This initiative broadens the scope of the Court's training programs, reaching specialized audiences as well as the general English-speaking public in the Caribbean, the Americas and other regions.

The courses are designed to disseminate the work and jurisprudence of the Inter-American Court of Human Rights. They are free and accessible via a computer or mobile device with an internet connection. Each course features ten audiovisual classes led by expert instructors on the Inter-American Human Rights System and complemented with readings and other resources.

To access the study programs and register for these first three online courses, please visit the following links:
